

REFERENCE LIST

- 1 Lawler, J., Ahern, M., Stanley, A. & West, S. (1997). Who wants to be a nurse? A report on applicants selecting nursing as a university course in NSW in 1997. Sydney: The University of Sydney.
- 2 Tang, K.C., Duffield, C., Choucair, S., Creegan, R., Mak, C. & Leslie, G. (1996). Perceptions of nursing as a career choice among a sample of Year 11 and 12 students speaking either Arabic, Serbo-Croatian, Spanish, Turkish or Vietnamese at home in Sydney. South Eastern Sydney Area Health Service.
- 3 Donovan Research. (1998). Research to assist the development of a campaign to promote nursing as a career. Health Department of Western Australia.
- 4 Schacht, S. (2000). Nursing Career Promotional Material and Work Experience Survey Report. Nursing Branch, NSW Health Department.
- 5 Le Grice, Martin. (1998). Nursing Recruitment Stage II Creative Development. A Qualitative Assessment of Draft Promotional Materials among Year 11/12 Students. Prepared by Martin Le Grice for Osprey Communications and the NSW Health Nursing Branch.
- 6 NSW Health Department Circular 98/115. Guidelines for the provision of work experience programs in the NSW Public Health System.
- 7 NSW Department of Education and Training. Curriculum Support Directorate (1998). Workplace Learning Handbook for Government Schools.
- 8 NSW Department of Education & Training. (1998). An Employer's Guide to Workplace Learning for Government Schools. September.
- 9 New South Wales Department of Education and Training. Curriculum Support Directorate (1998). Workplace Learning Handbook for Government Schools.
- 10 NSW Health Department Circular 98/115. Guidelines for the provision of work experience programs in the NSW Public Health System. December.
- 11 Labor's Ready for Work Plan – preparing young people for work. Extracted from NSW Labor Government's Plans for Education and Training 1999-2003.
- 12 Workcover Authority of NSW. (1998) Young workers, work experience students and work placement students – Don't let their first day be their worst day. Pamphlet Catalogue No 115.
- 13 Labor Council of NSW Don't let your first day be your worst day – Making workplace health and safety everyone's business (Leaflet from the OH&S Department).
- 14 NSW Department of Education & Training. (1998). An Employer's Guide to Workplace Learning for Government Schools. September.

FURTHER READING

NSW Health Department Circular 97/80.
Procedures for Recruitment and Employment of Staff and Other Persons – Vetting and Management of Allegations and Improper Conduct.

NSW Health. Nursing Branch (1997). Policy Statement GNB/12 (Policy 12) Marketing Strategy and Marketing Policy for Nursing. (2 pages).

Le Grice, Martin. (1998). Nursing Recruitment Stage II Creative Development. A Qualitative Assessment of Draft Promotional Materials among Year 11/12 Students. Prepared by Martin Le Grice for Osprey Communications and the NSW Health Nursing Branch April 1998.

NSW Department of Education & Training. (1998). An Employer's Guide to Workplace Learning for Government Schools. September.

NSW Department of Education & Training. (1998). A Parent's Guide to Workplace Learning for Government Schools. September.

NSW Health. (1998). Nursing – you can make a difference. Careers Advisers Kit.

NSW Health (1998) Nursing Specialties: Nursing - you can make a difference. NSW Health Department.

Sydney Archdiocesan Catholic Schools Board, Catholic Education Office, Sydney. (1998). Guide to Educational Services.

NSW Health Department Circular 99/18.
NSW Health Information Privacy Code of Practice. File 97/1479.

Meppem, J. [Chief Nursing Officer] NSW Health. (2000). Recruitment and Retention of Nurses Progress Report. 14 March 2000.

NSW Health Department Circular 2000/18.
Assessment programs for overseas qualified registered nurses, enrolled nurses and midwives. Workplace Learning for Government Schools. September.

