

Application for a Licence to Supply Drugs of Addiction

(Poisons and Therapeutic Goods Act 1966 and Poisons and Therapeutic Goods Regulation 2008)

When to use this form

This form is for applicants who wish to apply for a licence to supply drugs of addiction, for example licensed private health facilities and nursing homes.

Approval process

The approval process will take up to four weeks from the date the NSW Ministry of Health receives the completed application. This includes the time taken for assessment, interviews and inspection if required. An application for a licence supply drugs of addiction can be refused if the Secretary, NSW Health is of the opinion that the applicant is not a fit and proper person to hold the licence or that the premises are not appropriate for supply of drugs of addiction.

Where an applicant submits an incomplete application or is required to produce further documentation the approval process will be delayed. More information about the approval process including the timeframes for the different phases of the process can be found on the "Processing times" page of the website www.health.nsw.gov.au/Hospitals/privatehealth/Pages/app-forms-licences-ptga.aspx

After submission of the completed form the applicant will be provided with a written acknowledgement of the application. The acknowledgement will include a request for omitted or incomplete documents if required. Once all documents have been received assessment of the application will take place and a recommendation will be made to either grant or refuse the application. If the recommendation approves granting the licence, the licence will be issued to the applicant. If the recommendation is to refuse the licence the reasons for the refusal will be provided to the applicant.
