Good hand hygiene is the best method we have for reducing the spread of infection-causing germs. Please clean your hands before and after visiting a patient’s room, or touching a patient.

Clean hands save lives