

Exemption under the Public Health (COVID-19 Restrictions on Gathering and Movement) Order (No 7) 2020 (NSW) under the Public Health Act 2010 (NSW)

I, Brad Hazzard, Minister for Health and Medical Research, under clause 38 of the Public Health (COVID-19 Restrictions on Gathering and Movement) Order (No 7) 2020 (NSW) (the Order), hereby grant the following exemptions from that Order:

1. The occupier of a stadium is not required to comply with clause 36(2) of the Order when persons are attending a ticketed event subject to compliance with the following conditions:
  - a. The occupier must collect the name and contact number and allocated seating area for all primary transaction holders (ticket purchasers) through a ticketing process and keep this record for a period of at least 28 days. The occupier must take reasonably practical steps to ensure that the primary transaction holder has the name and contact number for all members of their group.
  - b. The occupier must, on request, provide the record to the Chief Health Officer, or an authorised officer within the meaning of the Public Health Act 2010, as soon as practicable, but no later than 4 hours, after the request is made.
  - c. The occupier must cooperate with NSW Health in relation to contact tracing if NSW Health request cooperation.
2. A person who attends a ticketed event at a stadium is exempt from clause 36(1) of the Order subject to the following conditions:
  - a. If the person has purchased the tickets to the event, the person has provided their name and contact number to the occupier when the ticket was purchased;
  - b. If the person has purchased tickets on behalf of another person, the person has the name and phone number of each other person who attends the event;
  - c. If the person has purchased tickets on behalf of another person, the person must provide the contact details of each other person who attended the event if asked by an authorised officer within the meaning of the Public Health Act 2010,
  - d. If the person is attending the event and has not purchased tickets themselves, the person provides their name and contact number to the person purchasing the ticket.
