5. Descriptors

Library Assistant

A practitioner at this level:

- (a) Performs routine activities to gain practical experience required for the operation of information systems and services to clients.
- (b) Requires ability to develop skills in, and knowledge of library and information standards, procedures, practices and operations, and specific library collections obtained from formal course work and/or workplace training.
- (c) Exercises judgment, where a choice of action is available within the application of clearly established standards, practices and procedures.
- (d) Works under direct supervision of a senior paraprofessional or a professional, but exercises increasing autonomy in prioritising and completing tasks. This may involve working co-operatively in the organisation of work.
- (e) The outcome of work undertaken is usually of direct, but short-term effect on clients, collections and co-workers.

Library Technician

Grade 1 - A para-professional practitioner at this level:

- (a) Performs and/or assists in co-ordinating activities required for the operation and maintenance of library and information services and systems.
- (b) Requires sound knowledge and skill and the ability to develop expertise in library and information management concepts necessary to undertake a varied range of tasks in library procedures and operations.
- (c) Exercises judgment in dealing with a range of general or specialist tasks and problems, with reference to established standards, practices and procedures. Some adaptation of systems, standards or practices may be undertaken.
- (d) Works under general supervision of a senior paraprofessional or a professional or manager. Works either individually or co-operatively as a member of a team, or as the leader of a small non-hierarchical team.
- (e) The outcome of work is usually direct or short-term to intermediate, but may be long term in its effect on clients, collections and co-workers. Work may assist in the formulation of procedures or policies.

Librarian

Grade 1 - A professional practitioner at this level:

- (a) Provides professional library and information services and/or assists in the development of library and information services and systems. May co-ordinate discrete library and information management projects or assist in the operations and systems of a unit, team or library service.
- (b) Requires sound knowledge of library and information service concepts, principles and theory, and a sound understanding of library systems, practices and procedures.
- (c) Exercises judgment in dealing with a range of operational and/or conceptual tasks and problems with reference to established standards, practices and procedures. Is able to adapt systems, standards or priorities and deviate to a limited extent from precedent. With experience may solve non-routine problems by applying principle and theory with reference to precedent.
- (d) Works under general supervision of a senior professional or manager. Works either individually or co-operatively as a member of a team or as the leader of a small non-hierarchical team.
- (e) The outcome of work is usually direct or short-term to intermediate, but may be long term in its effect on clients, collections and co-workers. Work may assist in the formulation of procedures or policies and contribute to the body of professional knowledge.

Grade 2 - An experienced professional practitioner and/or developing specialist at this level:

- (a) Provides complex or specialist library and information services. May co-ordinate/supervise a discrete library and information management project, or the operations and systems of a unit, team or library service.
