

CLINICAL ETHICS FORUM

“Physician Assisted Dying and Voluntary Euthanasia - Dilemma and Debate in the Australian Context”

Sydney Children’s Hospital Lecture theatre
Thursday, 29 October
3.00PM – 5.00PM

This Clinical Ethics Forum has been organised by the South Eastern Sydney Local Health District Clinical Ethics Committee.

The forum will be moderated by:
Hon Emeritus Prof Peter Baume

Program

- 3- 4pm: Presentation by our 2 keynotes speakers
 - Prof Paul Komesaroff – Practising physician , Professor of Medicine at Monash University : Medical perspective and review of the ethics
 - Prof Lindy Willmot – Co-Director of Queensland University of Technology’s Australian Centre for Health Law Research : Legal expert and review of the data from jurisdictions where Euthanasia/Physician Assisted Dying is legal
- 4-5pm :Panel discussion on a constructed case
 - Ms Anne Meller: Clinical Nurse Consultant in Advance Care Planning
 - Dr Linda Sheahan: Palliative Care Specialist and Bioethicist
 - Mr Mark Ragg: Journalist , public commentator and community representative
 - Prof Paul Komesaroff: Ethics expertise and general medical
 - Prof Lindy Willmot: Legal expert and researcher
- Afternoon tea

RSVP’s are required as there is limited seating, Please RSVP ClinicalEthics@sesiahs.health.nsw.gov.au by the 14th of October

For further information contact Sandra Chaverot on 9382 2458 or ClinicalEthics@SESIAHS.health.nsw.gov.au