

Pills, pot, pipes & pints: Drug trends in young people

23 August 2017

Program

- 0830 - 0900 Registration
- 0900 - 0910 Welcome and introduction
Mr Mark Hankin, Student Support Officer, Campbell House School; recipient of the 2013 NSW Youth Work Inaugural Lifetime Achievement Award
- 0910 - 0945 Trends in substance use among young people
Professor Michael Farrell Director of National Drug and Alcohol Research Centre (NDARC), University of New South Wales
- 0945 – 1015 Prevention and early Intervention -Protecting young people’s brains
Dr Bronwyn Milne, Paediatrician, Addiction Medicine Specialist and Staff Specialist in Adolescent Medicine, Department of Adolescent Medicine, The Children’s Hospital at Westmead
- 1015 - 1055 MORNING TEA
- 1055 - 1120 The ultimate roller coaster: drug and alcohol coming up and going down
Dr Karen Fisher, Clinical Director Drug & Alcohol Services, Nepean Hospital
- 1120-1145 Trends and treatment of young people
Mr Mark Ferry, Chief Operating Officer, Noffs
- 1145-1155 Voice of youth
Ms Bianca Schmid, young person
- 1155-1230 Panel discussion
Panel will include all program speakers