

Consent, choices and checks: Promoting a positive approach in youth sexual health

28 November 2018

Program

- 0830 – 0900 Registration
- 0900 - 0905 Welcome and introduction
Clinical Associate Professor Deborah Bateson, Medical Director,
Family Planning NSW
- 0905 - 0940 Reframing young people’s sexual health: rights and risks
Prof Rachel Skinner, Senior Clinical Advisor, Youth Health Wellbeing,
NSW Ministry of Health; Professor in Child and Adolescent Health,
Discipline of Child and Adolescent Health, University of Sydney
- 0940 - 1005 Sexual Health Promotion for everybody
Ms Carolyn Murray, Manager NSW STI Program Unit, Centre for Population
Health, NSW Ministry of Health
- 1005 – 1035 MORNING TEA
- 1035 - 1110 Consent: What does it mean and why does it matter?
Ms Jane Sanders, Principal Solicitor, The Shopfront Youth Legal Centre
- 1110 - 1130 Take Blaktion - Sexual Health Promotion: The role of humour
Mr Marty Janssen, Manager, Health Promotion Resources Program, NSW STI
Program Unit, Centre for Population Health, NSW Ministry of Health and Ms Shana Quayle, Practice Improvement Assistant, Aboriginal Health and Medical Research Council of NSW
- 1130 - 1200 Strategies and resources for working with young people
Mr Thomas Munro, Senior Health Promotion Officer, Youth and Ms Caecilia Roth, Senior Education Officer; Family Planning NSW
- 1200 - 1205 Voice of Youth
Ms Cagla, young person
- 1205 - 1230 Panel discussion - joined by all Program speakers