

Harnessing Data to Support System Change

Date: Lumos Symposium - Friday 22nd July, 2022

Location: Pier One Sydney Harbour - 11 Hickson Road, Walsh Bay, Sydney, NSW 2000

RSVP: Lumos@health.nsw.gov.au by Friday 17th June, 2022

Registration

9:00am Registration with breakfast available

Session 1

9:30am Welcome and introduction
Sharon Smith

9:40am Welcome to Country
Uncle Allen Madden

9:50am Using health data to drive system change that improves population health
Brenda Reiss-Brennan

10:20am Leveraging Lumos in Primary Care
Walid Jammal

10:40am Primary Care Reform
Simon Cotterell

11:00am Representing the consumer voice in data reform
Georgina Luscombe, Brian Dalton

11:30am Morning Tea

11:45am How can we use data to better inform decision making centrally and locally?
Walid Jammal, Sharon Smith, Nick Goodwin, Simon Cotterell

12:15pm Data insights and highlights
Patty Correll

12:45pm Lunch

Session 2 - Concurrent sessions

1:45pm	Solutions Workshop » Navigating privacy and ethics to support Lumos data use locally	Bridging the data gap » Dashboards to support analysis and decision making	Modelling value using predictive analytics » Collaborative Commissioning
--------	--	--	--

2:15pm Leveraging Lumos data in an LHD/PHN partnership
South Western Sydney PHN and LHD

Closing

2:45pm What next?
James Linden

3:00pm Event ends, afternoon tea available