Resources for Health and Social Service Practitioners from the Community Trauma Toolkit

Community Trauma Toolkit
This toolkit contains resources to help and support adults and children before, during, and after a disaster or traumatic event. It will help you understand some of the impacts of disaster and how you can help lessen these impacts.

Visit the Emerging Minds web hub to access the full suite of resources.

PODCASTS
Communities in the immediate aftermath of a trauma
Disaster preparedness, myths and programs that hold promise
The ongoing psychosocial needs of children following a community trauma

FACT SHEETS
Trauma responses in children aged 0–24 months
Trauma responses in children aged 2–4 years
Trauma responses in children aged 5–12 years
Common severe stress reactions to a traumatic event
A guide for health and social service workers: Supporting children's disaster preparedness

A guide for health and social service workers: Supporting children’s mental health immediately following a disaster

A guide for health and social service workers: common reactions to trauma and loss by children aged 0–5

A guide for health and social service workers: common reactions to trauma and loss by children aged 6–8

A guide for health and social service workers: common reactions to trauma and loss by children aged 9–12

A guide for health and social service workers: Supporting children’s mental health in the short term following a disaster

A guide for health and social service workers: Supporting children’s mental health in the long term following a disaster

The use of therapeutic story books following a natural disaster

The importance of story and play for young children following a natural disaster

Queensland Centre for Perinatal & Infant Mental Health: Natural disaster resources

Infant and perinatal wellbeing: Risk and resilience factors

The impact of natural disasters on babies and young children

The impact of drought on children

Re-establishing routines and rules following a disaster or traumatic event

The impact on parenting and the parent-child relationship after a disaster or traumatic event

The impact on children of a disaster or traumatic event

Children in the short term after a disaster or traumatic event

Children in the long term after a disaster or traumatic event

Children in the immediate aftermath of a disaster or traumatic event

Children’s meaning-making in relation to a disaster or traumatic event

Strathewen community: A bushfire recovery story 10 years in the making

Preparing for disaster

Supporting children immediately after a disaster or traumatic event

Supporting children in the short-term after a disaster or traumatic event

Supporting children in the long-term after a disaster or traumatic event

Health and social service practitioners community trauma workshop

The National Workforce Centre for Child Mental Health is funded by the Australian Government Department of Health under the National Support for Child and Youth Mental Health Program.

Delivery partners: