

Single Digital Patient Record

We are improving the way we manage your health information to better support your care

- This new system brings all your health information into one place
- When fully rolled out, your health information will be available across all NSW Health hospitals and services
- It is private and secure
- There is nothing you need to do
- Thank you for your patience as our staff get used to using the new system.

Find out more about the
Single Digital Patient Record
health.nsw.gov.au/sdpr