

Clinical Skills Self-Assessment

This document must be completed by a Locum Medical Officer and returned to a Medical Locum Agency for submission to a NSW Public Health Organisation Medical Workforce Unit.

Locum name		Date
Agency
Agency signature		Print name
Skills		Theory only	Have observed and can perform)	Have performed and can teach medical officer to work un own limitations and when proficiency in peripheral v	eral medical abilities as a resident/senior resident ader supervision. This must include understanding of to ask for assistance, and including (not exhaustive) enous cannulation, arterial blood gas sampling, CG interpretation, lumbar puncture, use of fluids and uturing.
appropriate, can commun	tise, know own limitations and ask for help where nicate severity appropriately over the phone and can larly the type of skill to be in charge of a department children having complete	Basic paediatric care – general abilities to assess d a paediatric resident term, or seen children in a ment. Includes peripheral venous cannulation in tests in order to make pro presentations to the eme exclusive to) ability to ma	ble to correlate history, examination and diagnostic ovisional diagnosis and initiate management for most rgency department. This includes (but is not nage multisystem trauma, management of simple s, complex suturing, use of slit lamps and ENT of foreign bodies.
Intensive Care Unit Med function at the level of a r	dicine: Mechanical ventilation. Can generally egistrar in intensive care.
diagnostic tests in order t	: Able to correlate history, examination and o make provisional diagnosis and initiate admitted or proposed to be admitted under an adult
Minimum 6 months exper	ience as a medical registrar or equivalent:	Yes	No	Unknown independent clinical decisi	owledge about mental health to be able to make ons and in particular current knowledge of the Mental in a multidisciplinary team.
Minimum of 6 months' ex	perience as a psychiatry registrar:	Yes	No	Unknown a surgical registrar in a relevant surgical ent knowledge to make independent decisions. uma call teams.
Minimum of 6 months' ex subspecialty:	perience as a surgical registrar in a relevant surgical	Yes	No	Unknown

EMPLOYMENT AND MANAGEMENT OF LOCUM MEDICAL OFFICERS BY NSW PUBLIC HEALTH ORGANISATIONS

Airway and Breathing - Skills	Theory Only	Have observed and can perform	Have performed and can teach Manual Ventilation – Adult: Manual ventilation; e.g. bag and mask ventilation, Guedels airway, laryngeal mask airway – adult.
Uncomplicated Intubation – Adult: Uncomplicated intubation of an unconscious adult patient.
Difficult Intubation – Adult: Difficult intubation.
Continuous Positive Airway Pressure (CPAP)
Bilevel Positive Airway Pressure (BiPAP)
Intercostal Catheter Insertion

CIRCULATION - SKILLS	Theory Only	Have seen and can perform	Have performed and can teach
Central Line Insertion
Arterial Line Insertion
Vasoactive Drugs: Use of vasoactive drugs.
Cardioversion and Defibrillation: Emergency cardioversion and defibrillation.
External Pacing
Pericardiocentesis

PAEDIATRIC CARE – SKILLS	Theory Only	Have observed and can perform	Have performed and can teach Paediatric Manual Ventilation: Including bag and mask in children.
Advanced Paediatric Life Support: Experience in advanced paediatric resuscitation and life support.
Paediatric Interosseous Lines: Experience in inserting interosseous lines into acutely unwell children.
Paediatric Arterial Blood Gas: experience in paediatric blood gas sampling.

NEONATAL CARE – SKILLS	Theory Only	Have seen and can perform	Have performed and can teach Neonatal Manual Ventilation: e.g. bag and mask, neopuff.
Neonatal resuscitation: Experience in the acute resuscitation of neonates, including intubation and ventilation.
Neonatal blood gases
Neonatal cannulation: Can place peripheral venous cannulas in neonates.
Neonatal umbilical lines: Experience in placement of umbilical venous and arterial lines.
Neonatal advanced skills: Including mechanical ventilation and insertion of intercostal catheters.			